

LET LIVING WATER FLOW JOHN 4:14

BECKY AND LARRY STANTON

EDUCATION AND IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

To everyone who has stood behind us and International Ministries: Thank you! You are incredible in your loving support and prayers for the English ministry in Hungary. We could not be here without you. Your sacrificial giving from the beginning encouraged us to take this huge step of faith into mission life, and we love you for it.

In Hungarian elementary and high schools, there is an enormous opportunity for missionary work. With more and more Hungarians becoming interested in learning English, native English speakers are in high demand as teachers. Schools are also embracing Christian teachers as they see the positive effects we are having on the next generation.

My [Becky] daily work allows me to share my faith and use Christian materials in teaching English. There are no limits on praying with my coworkers, and as I gain the love and trust of the school's faculty, students, families and community, I can light the way to God's wellspring of living water.
