White Cross – Liberia Ricks Institute Meals

SUPPORT RAISED

LIBERIA

GOAL

International Ministries seeks to raise $10,000 in White Cross funds for the Ricks Institute in Liberia

SUMMARY

This White Cross project seek to raise $10,000 to provide meals for 120 students a day at the Ricks Institute in Liberia.

DESCRIPTION

The Ricks Institute has prevailed despite civil war, disease and upheaval. The staff is dedicated to providing a quality educational experience for children in K – 12 that focuses not on self, but serving others. Their ministry is open to girls and boys from all over Liberia and beyond. Ricks is a strong community and it's a nationally recognized school with 41% of the school population as residential students. A majority of teachers and staff also live on campus.

As a Christian school, Ricks dedication is embodied in their feeding program. Living out the call of Jesus to care for the poor and hungry, the live out their testimony by feeding children so they can reach their full potential. All students are nurtured to become faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

Campus life at Ricks Institute is a rich experience complete with daily and weekend activities as well as community service opportunities. Students participate in athletics and learn the responsible use of technology.

This project will be managed by Dr. Olu Q. Menjay, Chief Administrative Officer of IM partner, Ricks Institute.
